

Teotihuacan Info

Thank you so much for inquiring about the trip to Teotihuacan in December! This is a fantastic journey of self discovery, stepping into your personal power and initiation to higher awareness and energies. You would plan to arrive on December 10th before 3:30 pm. We will pick you up (further instructions will be provided) and take you to <http://www.thedreaminghouse.com> which will be our home for the journey. It is a safe compound right at the edge of the pyramid site.

We will journey one initiation after another all the way through the site. The order depends upon site access as sometimes the archeological people are working in different areas. We generally do the actual journey from early in the morning to mid afternoon after which you are free to shop, rest or process what you have done that day. I have a very laid back style so this isn't grueling at all. I often when possible arrange side trips as well when possible. You never know!

We have two meals per day, breakfast, which is huge, before we leave for the pyramids then comita, the largest meal ,mid afternoon. We have snacks at night. You would plan to leave in the afternoon on the 15th from Mexico city. The trip is $995 based upon double occupancy and includes all lodging, transport to and from the airport plus to the site and your site admissions and all teachings. It does not include your airfare in and out of Mexico City. I accept checks, money orders, most major credit cards and pay pal. Basically all you have to do is get to the airport in Mexico City and let us do the rest. Easy!

If you require a single room it is $280 extra. They are available first come first serve depending upon the size of the group. I accept most major credit cards and you can e-mail me for the number to call. Or, I accept pay pal, just click on send money and send your deposit to me at spiritlite1@aol.com or you can mail a check or money order to me at Meg Blackburn Losey, Ph.D., 29830 S. Pine Springs Rd., Cheney, WA 99004.

Hopefully this answers everything for you. Please let me know if you need any more information. It will be fantastic to have you along!

Blessings and thanks!

Meg
